PERSONNEL

CERTIFICATION AND HIGHLY QUALIFIED STATUS

The term “certified personnel” will be used for those employees who must possess a current, valid teaching certificate issued by the South Dakota Department of Education, Office of Accreditation and Teacher Quality, authorizing said person to teach or administer in the grade level(s) or subject area(s) for which he or she was employed.

The Human Resources Director will assure that all persons recommended for employment meet certification requirements and highly qualified status for core content positions or that a Plan of Intent exists to meet these requirements.

Copies of certificates will be kept in the Human Resources Office.
