

Simmons Middle School Activities

MathCounts

MathCounts is a competitive math program open to 6th, 7th and 8th graders. Students come to school early one day a week to practice challenging math problems. Competitions, locally sponsored by 3M, are held October through March. This program is a great opportunity to work on higher level problem solving and computation skills.

